After many years of dedicated service, Mrs. Ellen S. Chase resigned as Librarian, due to poor health, and became a Trustee. Miss Louise Bailey in turn resigned as Trustee and was appointed Librarian.

The books bought through the Shieling Fund have been divided and the Bath Library has twenty-eight volumes. Each library has a special file on all the Shieling books and their whereabouts so that all libraries within the group will have access to these volumes at all times.

Many books have been donated to the Library and we appreciate not only the books but the interest shown by the donors.

The Open House this year was well attended as more interest seems to be shown in the Library.

We would like to thank the teachers of the Bath Grade School for their cooperation in making the Library more useful and interesting to the children.

A great deal of additional work has been done on the card catalogue files and the Dewey Decimal classification, as well as reshelving of many volumes in order that the Library would be more efficient.

REPORT TO HEALTH OFFICER TOWN OF BATH

For Year Ending Dec. 31, 1963

With the cooperation of the school nurse the tuberculin Heaf test was given to the children in grades 1-4-8. These tests are done each year in the same grades so that children are tested three times in the primary grades. The contacts of positive cases are followed up in the homes, in the doctor's office or T.B. clinic.

Due to the polio epidemic in Canada a special Oral Sabin polio vaccine type III was held for preschool children and adults. With the cooperation of the school nurse we also gave type III polio vaccine in the school to those who had not already received this type.

The infants and preschool children of Bath were included in the Well Child Conferences of either Woodsville or Lisbon for physical examination and immunization against whooping cough, tetanus, diphtheria, smallpox and polio. Booster shots were also given to those who needed them.

The state public health nurse made home visits to infants, preschool children and adults for counseling and assistance with health problems.

My sincere thanks for the cooperation received.

Respectfully submitted,

LORETTA B. RUSSELL, R.N.

REPORT OF THE FOREST FIRE WARDEN AND YOUR DISTRICT CHIEF

During the past year New Hampshire faced the greatest forest fire threat to its woodlands in more than sixty years. The continued drought brought home to our citizens, as never before, the potential threat of destructive fires to their beautiful and valuable forests, homes and livelihood. In true American tradition of meeting a common threat by volunteer effort, this fire danger was minimized by active prevention, patrol and a relinquishing of personal rights for the common good. It was the greatest demonstration of public cooperation ever experienced by those responsible for local and state fire control. The ready forces of volunteer fire services kept the losses low. For their effort and public response the general fire service expresses its heartfelt thanks for a job well done.

Prevention however, is not just an activity for the bad fire years. It must be practiced until it becomes a part of our public conscience—a habit. Just plain carelessness with fire causes too many of our fires.

The following practices and suggestions will help:

1. Always have a permit for outdoor burning and burn within the terms of the permit and in a safe place. Burn late in the afternoon when the wind is down or on rainy or damp days. Check your fire and if winds develop extinguish it promptly.
2. Carry your rubbish to the public dump—it's safer. A neglected backyard incinerator causes many fires.
3. Never discard lighted cigarette or match. Make this a year round habit regardless of the safety of your surroundings.

4. Children caused fires are now a major concern. Keep matches away from them and teach them to respect fire and not make it a subject of play.

Let's all join with "Smokey the Bear" and "Keep New Hampshire Green" and growing in 1964.

1963 - 1964

For long periods of service, appreciation is hereby expressed, by the Bath School Board and by the Superintendent, to Mrs. Avis Lemieux White and to Linwood "Gramp" Tewksbury.

Mrs. White, upon retirement in June of 1963, had given the Bath school system over 30 years of her life's service, having been first employed to teach in the Nutter School in 1929. We wish for her many more years of good health and happiness.

The safety record of "Gramp", as school bus owner and driver for a continuous period from 1949 to 1963 without accident nor missing of scheduled trips, is one of which he should be justly proud. The administration congratulates him on his record.

The teaching vacancy has been ably filled by Mrs. Alice Scott of Monroe, and the bus route has been acquired by Carroll Nihan of West Bath.

In the realm of education, it would seem that more and more parental responsibilities are being shunted onto the school systems; and to the detriment of the child's well being.

For nearly 300 years we had a society and way of life that required every growing youngster to carry in fire wood when he was about age six. He learned to plow at 12 and become a "hand" at 16. But modern life has changed all that. The greatest resource available to today's youth is time. Their most perplexing problem is finding something useful to do with it.

Since the time when about 90 percent of our people worked the land and it took about three individuals in agriculture to sustain one on the city street, we have moved to where one farm worker can now supply 23 others. The economists predict that this proportion is sure to go to one to 30 and eventually, perhaps, to where one individual on the land can maintain 40 or 50 individuals living in town.

Because much of the change in agriculture and our way of living has been recent, a majority of our adult population can remember a growing up experience when there was something useful to do—the very doing of which was of significance and made a difference to the other members of the family group. It may or may not have been carrying in the wood or learning to plow. It might have been white-washing a fence, gathering eggs, pumping water, closing in the chickens at night, tending a vegetable garden, or some other important and necessary chore.

But in that earlier period children were genuinely an economic asset. Their efforts were purposeful and needed.

At home, in school, and in community activities, children learn through participation. They learn to accept responsibility by being given responsibilities. They learn correct procedures by making occasional mistakes. Skills develop through practice.

In the process by which young people grow into mature citizens, idleness is not a substitute for work experiences geared to advancing maturity. The opportunities available to youth in generations past are now missing. For it is pretty hard for a youth to learn to plow on a city street.

Unfortunately, only a small minority of rural youth actually live on productive farms.

They have moved with high hopes of finding some share of the "good life." Taking their disadvantages with them—poverty, a low level of educational background, a lack of employable skills—they have not generally found it.

It is frustrating, perhaps even worse, for our youth who find themselves in a society that doesn't have anything for them to do.

Having a generation of perhaps the healthiest and most energetic youth the world has ever known with not much to do with their time is a serious social problem. Its seriousness is not only the idleness of youth but the fact that they are deprived of maturing influences that constructive work experiences give.

So far our society has either failed to recognize this problem or has simply turned its back on it.

Parents need to understand the significance of work experiences and must try to find as many outlets for their children as possible.

Children learn by the tasks they do. They have little opportunity to learn when everything is done for them, when they are shielded from responsibility. From an early age with each child, parents must be alert to the tasks and chores and routine jobs that can be assigned and supervised.

The leaders of business and labor need to accept a share of responsibility for furnishing work opportunities to youth.

It is not suggested here that youth be put in competition with adults for jobs. They are not ready to accept such responsibility.

Opportunities for work experiences for youth need to be created. Our modern society is something of a unique experiment. Only recently have we become a nation more urban than rural.

But regardless of how the job is attacked, at what level or by which agency, many opportunities for youth will need to be created.

One of the basic social problems in America is the fact that it now has on its hands, not around the bend, a generation of youth with nothing to do but go to school. A generation with nothing to do but go to school long after our colonial, agricultural concept of a school program should have been taken out of the picture. For there isn't any way to take the meager scrap of time now allocated to education and do for this country what has to be done if it is to survive and prosper during the last half of the Twentieth Century.

The cooperation of the School Board, the interest of the citizens in their school, and the integrity of the staff is deeply and sincerely appreciated.

The report of Mrs. Muriel LaMott, R. N., follows.

Respectfully submitted,

Bath, N. H.
